

WHAT IS THE NEWS?

What is the important news Miss Kim has?

She's engaged!!! Kim and Fred Black are making plans for a wedding.
We're So excited For Them!!! We'll keep you posted on future plans

Burlington Manor Performance

What fun!! Pre, I and II Centre Stars Dance Company members performed their routines for the residents of Burlington Manor. Who had more fun...the performers or the residents? We enjoyed watching the faces of the residents, seeing the fingers and toes tapping to the music and the swaying with the up beat rhythm. We wouldn't have been surprised to see some of them get up to join us....it seemed hard for one woman to keep her seat.

Payments

Several parents have ask about tuition payment date. The tuition is due the first class of each month with a late fee of $10.00 being due if the payment is received after the 10th of each month. The year is divided into 9 equal payments no matter how many weeks there are in the month.

Liturgical Performances

During the next weeks Heather Wall, Helen Ann Woodard, Erin Barnhill, Sarah Whited, Meghan Wall, members of Proclaim, will present religious selections at a variety of locations. Westside Church - Sept. 11, Integrity Church-Sept. 15, Chapel Hill-Sept. 22 and at a Worship Concert-October 5. If you are interested in liturgical classes. Heather teaches on Tuesday nights. We have an experienced level now and would like to form a class of dance students who are interested in adding liturgical. Just let us know.

NEW OF PAST AND PRESENT STUDENTS

Katie Walker, a junior, and Mallory McVey, a freshman are past students of CoPA and attend the North Carolina School of the Arts in Winston-Salem. Katie attended Boston Ballet with a scholarship for 6 weeks this summer where she performed a solo in the contemporary ballet piece, Awakening. She also had the lead in Tiboli, New York during the later part of the summer.

Jocelyn Desrochers will perform a modern selection with her department at UNC-Greensboro in December 6-7, which may also be taken to Hawaii. On Dec. 8 she will also perform in a Graduate Student Showing.

Jocelyn is a dance major and you may see her fitting some substitute work at CoPA into her busy schedule.

Katharine Lowery will sing and tap in The 1940's Radio Hour September 13-15, 20-22, 27-29 at Paramount Theatre in Burlington. She is sophomore Musical Theater major at Elon.

Music Man We have several students selected through audition at Elon to be included in Music Man. Congratulations to Jason Bussiere, Matthew Wilkinson and Cameron Vaughn! More information on dates later.
